Duke Ellington's Sacred Concert
with the Big Buzzard Boogie Band

A joyous celebration of freedom, with the Big Buzzard Boogie Band injecting some serious soul into the proceedings. You'll believe an English choir can really swing! Big Band jazz featuring a choir is an unusual mixture, but one which can produce a truly thrilling sound.

Stunning improvised solos from trumpets, trombones and saxophones, with a superb rhythm section behind fantastic jazz vocal harmonies. Dancing in the aisles encouraged.

- As performed live on BBC Radios 3 and 4.
- Featuring some of the finest young jazz musicians in the country.

Ticket prices £10 (£8 concessions, £1 students)

REHEARSALS

We rehearse once a week, on Tuesday evenings, in Poynton (usually with an extra rehearsal before concerts). Entry to the choir is by audition, and new members can join at any time. You are welcome to come along to one or two rehearsals before auditioning, just contact Geoff Taylor on 01663 766991 to arrange this, or send an email to geoff1tayl@aol.com.

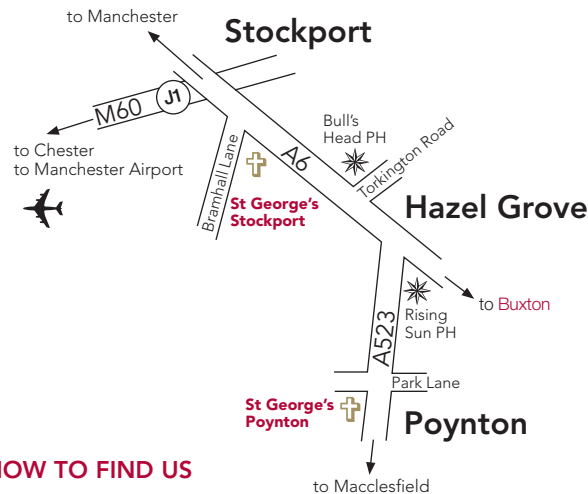

TICKETS

Tickets are available from Dave Francis on 01663 764012 or by email at dfrancis24@supanet.com.

£1 student tickets can be purchased for each concert (except 31 December and 19 March concerts at the Bridgewater Hall). Group discounts are available for parties of 10 or more for the 19 March concert at the Bridgewater Hall.

BECOME A FRIEND

By an annual donation of £10, £25 or more, you could become a Friend of the choir. This provides St George's Singers with extra financial support and includes an invitation to a wine reception at some concerts, so that you can meet other Friends and members of the choir committee, as well as having your name listed in every concert programme.
